

13 Seniors Enrolled In National Honor Group

by Jim McCullough

Thirteen members of the class of '57 have been installed in the St. Joseph's Gamma Delta Chapter of Delta Epsilon Sigma, the national Catholic Honors Society. The president of the society, Thomas Garrett, was here to make the presentations Oct. 16.

Include Five Grads

Also included were five eligible members of the class of '56: Edward Hennekes, Joseph Maher, Roger Uecker, Gerald Higgins, and Donald Prullage. Two others, Richard Barnett and Marvin Hackman, were installed last year.

Requirements for membership are as follows: the students must have maintained at least a B average and they must be in the upper 20% of their class. In addition, the total number elected to the society cannot exceed 10% of the whole class.

Only National Honors Group

The society was founded in 1939 to show the nation at large the true concern for scholastic ability in Catholic colleges. It is the only Catholic honor society that is national in scope, and that admits both men and women, Catholics and non-Catholics.

Any member of a Catholic college, regardless of race, creed, or color, is eligible provided he meets the scholastic qualifications. There are now 70 chapters throughout the country.

Six Profs Join Chapter

Plans were made last year for a chapter here, at which time Frs. Gross, Maziarz, Kenkel, Kaiser, and Mr. Paul Tonner joined the society. Mr. Jay Barton will be included this year.

It is hoped that St. Joe's Gamma Delta chapter will become a regular organization on the campus.

Student Council Votes Against Short Initiation

By a vote of five to two, the Student Council has voted down a motion which would restrict the period of freshmen initiation for the coming year to two weeks.

This motion, presented to the Council by the president of the sophomore class, Tom Doherty, was designed to provide a shorter and more intense period of initiation for the future frosh. However, after much debate, the Student Council failed to approve the measure.

In a special report, John Bian and Glenn Murphy informed the Council that the possibility of purchasing a false ceiling for use in the gym during student dances would not be realized this year.

At a conference with Fr. Lefko, the college treasurer, they were informed that the cost of the ceiling would not fit into the college budget for this year. However, the possibility of the purchase was not declined, but merely postponed until a future date.

Tony Smith, in two separate reports, informed the Council that the repair bill resulting from damages incurred at the 1955 Homecoming which had been pending since that time had been written off by the college, and that the college would assume the responsibility of providing ventilation in the Recreation Hall.

The repair bill which had been presented to the Council at various times was the result of damages caused by the falling of one of the main-court baskets onto the main

Duo Pianists Stecher, Horowitz To Inaugurate Concert Series

by Tom Mahoney

Duo pianists Melvin Stecher and Norman Horowitz will inaugurate the St. Joseph's College concert series Monday night, Oct. 22.

Both of the artists have appeared as soloists with various symphony orchestras and in recitals before they joined to form a piano duo in June of 1951. Two months prior to this, Mr. Stecher gave his last solo piano recital at Carnegie Hall, New York.

Reviewed As Brilliant

Several newspaper reviewers throughout both the United States and Canada have acclaimed the skill of this team. A few sample comments are "Played excellently," (Boston Herald); "Remarkable musicians . . . taste, technique, and style," (Cleveland Press); and "Brilliant duo pianists . . . their playing has a certain freshness and vitality," (L'Action Catholique, Quebec).

Stecher and Horowitz were featured last year at Radio City Music Hall where they gave 84 performances. This season they are performing on tours from coast to coast.

"Have Pianos, Will Travel"

The duo travels with their own Steinway Concert Grand pianos, which they will bring to the stage of the Collegeville auditorium. Program for the concert, which is scheduled to begin at 8:00 p.m., is:

Commerce Club Plans Trip

Discussion of a field trip highlighted the first meeting of the Commerce Club. The trip will include the Gary Works of United States Steel (the world's largest integrating steel mill) and Gary Sheet and Tin (a subsidiary of U.S. Steel).

The first meeting was mainly organizational, although any students interested in the club can join at the next meeting.

CLUB CLOCK

Columbian Players

With the addition of some 50 freshmen on the customary basis of probation, the Columbian Players' membership this semester is the largest in its long history. The addition of these new members has boosted the total group to over 60.

Mr. Ralph Cappuccilli, club moderator, and the club officers have recently suggested a plan to reward the veteran members of the Columbian Players. An honor certificate and a club emblem and pin will be awarded to those members who have actively participated in the group for two, three, and four years.

At present, the Columbian Players are busily engaged in the preparation of their fall play, "Twelve Angry Men," to be given November 17, 18, and 19. Tryouts for the play were held the first week of this month and Mr. Cappuccilli selected the final cast.

Rehearsals for "Twelve Angry Men," began last week. They are held five nights a week at 6:30 p.m.

Young Democrats

The Young Democrats elected Al Salerno to the presidency of their organization at a meeting on Oct. 3.

Also named to office were: Geo. Troha, vice-president; Chuck Vietzen, secretary; and Jim McGowan, treasurer. Mr. Richard Kilmer is moderator of the group.

Club members approved their constitution at the meeting and began work on four major projects. They include: co-sponsoring of a mock presidential election; publishing information of voting regulations for students eligible to vote; placing non-partisan voting information on the library reserve shelf; and a tentative trip to the state legislature.

Band

Senior Kevin Gallagher, a veteran, has been elected president of the college band. Bob Gasior, another senior, was named secretary-treasurer.

Elected as advisers by the group were Tom Hoffman, Jim Urban, and Gerry Walker. Tom Mahoney will act as the band's publicity adviser with the assistance of Ralph Haldorson.

Glee Club

St. Joseph's Singing Seventeen gave their second concert of the season at a Holy Name Society dinner in Pulaski, Ind., last Sunday.

It was the second successive year that the group had appeared at the Holy Name dinner. Fr. Joseph Hiller, professor of German here at the college, gave a short address to the Pulaski group.

Eight new members were added to the Singing Seventeen to fill the ranks. They include: first tenors, Nil Kajfez and Tom Ryan; second tenors, Dick Courtney and Tom Lewis; first basses, Dave Bartemes and Ed Knight; and second basses, John DeLaurentis and Roy Swanson.

Although the group always travels with 17 members, it is made up of 20 men altogether. New members will serve as alternates at various concerts.

Clubs To Hold Mock Election

A mock student presidential election will be held on Nov. 5, the day before the actual national elections. The election will be sponsored by the History club, in conjunction with the Young Democrat and Young Republican clubs.

Unlike most student elections, this will not be run by the usual popular vote system. Instead, each hall on campus will be given a number of electoral votes. As in our federal system, the candidate receiving the most votes in any hall will receive all the electoral votes in that hall.

Candidate Needs 79 Votes

According to Ed Mohr and Chuck Vietzen, the originators of this plan, polling places will be set up in each individual hall. Voting will take place from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 5 to 6 in the evening.

A candidate will need 79 of a possible 157 electoral votes for victory. Ballot counting will be held in the Rec Hall beginning at 8 p.m.

Politicians To Speak

Besides the actual election day events, however, several other factors will add to the election activities. Campaigning is expected to take place around the campus together with publicity to get out the vote.

To climax the campaigns a rally is tentatively planned for Sunday evening, Nov. 4, in the auditorium. Speakers, whose names will be announced in the future, will be professional politicians who will seek to sell their parties and their parties' candidates to the student body.

College Plans New Housing For Faculty

Plans have been made to begin construction of five new homes on a 25 acre plot of land a half mile south of school. These homes are the beginning of an eventual community which will be made up of married faculty members of the college and their families.

The idea of such a community has long been a dream of Fr. Raphael H. Gross, president of the college. Its purpose and function will be to enable the faculty members and their families to live together in a unified and Christian atmosphere.

The land on which each home is to be built will be purchased from the school by the faculty members. Mr. Frank Fisher, noted architect and builder, has been retained to help the purchaser in selecting and drawing up plans of the type of home which he desires.

Once the community is a realization it will be governed by a group known as the College Community Organization, made up of community members. This group will oversee the development of land and help members to meet the many difficulties that arise in community life.

Profs Decide Against Track

The faculty athletic committee of St. Joseph's recently voted against having a varsity track team this year. Reasons given for the decision were: 1) lack of participants from the upper classes, and 2) ineligibility of freshmen in varsity intercollegiate sports.

There was indication, however, that a track team may be fielded in the near future, perhaps next year, as some 20 freshmen recently inquired about tryouts.

A spring track meet in intramurals is being planned.

Davis Combo To Appear At Homecoming Revels

Clifford Davis and his five piece jazz combo will be featured at the Midnight Revels following the Homecoming dance. The Davis group is especially noted for its arrangement of the currently popular "Honky Tonk." They have appeared at numerous night spots in and around Chicago.

Featured vocalist with the Davis combo is Mitzi Mars, a proficient blues singer. The Revels will be held Saturday night, Oct. 27, in the Rec Hall.

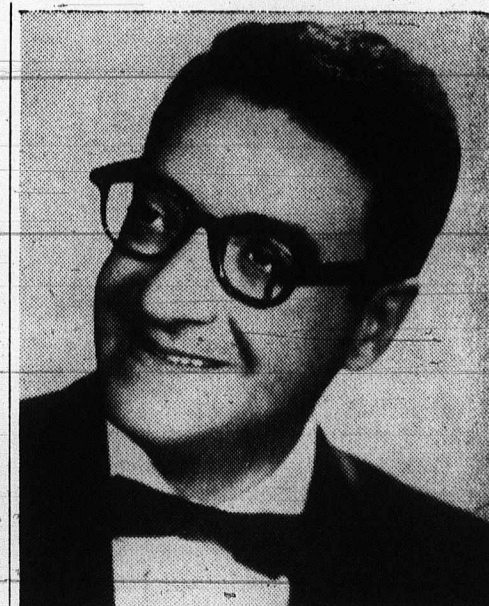

Expect 300 Couples

Prior to the Revels is the major Homecoming dance held in the fieldhouse from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Bobby Christian and his orchestra will play for this dance.

Over 300 couples are expected to attend the Homecoming dance, according to ticket co-chairmen Chuck Raih and Bill Riffe. They are planning on 160 couples for the Revels.

Decoration Begins Monday

Actual work on the Homecoming decorations is tentatively scheduled to begin next Monday. Chairman John Whalen and his art committee are preparing painted scenes that will head the dance theme, "The Returning Prince."

Athletic Committee Drops Track, Gives Two Reasons for Action

On Sept. 20, the faculty Athletic Committee voted not to have a track team this year. Since the track situation here at St. Joseph's has, in the past, been a source of ill-feeling, ridicule, and mainly, we feel, a source of misunderstanding, we gathered the following.

The decision against a track team was made for these two reasons:

1. Lack of interest, especially among upper classmen;
2. Ineligibility of freshmen in the I.C.C.;

To these reasons a third can be added, lack of a coach.

The committee consists of seven members, Frs. Fehrenbacher, Smolar, Schaefer, Robbins, Shea, and Dr. Barton and Mr. Jones. The three coaches are non-voting advisory members, and Fr. Shea is chairman.

The first reason for dropping track, lack of interest, it must be pointed out, does not mean lack of interest in the team, but a lack of WILLINGNESS to get out and train for a team. There is a difference between being passively interested in a team, and being a member of that team.

The second reason, ineligibility of freshmen, is obvious. Because the freshmen class constitutes such a large portion of the total enrollment, their ineligibility is a serious drawback. But it is one that could be overcome.

The third reason, lack of a coach, is a problem, but not an insurmountable one. It is a problem which can be solved if there is real interest at St. Joe in a team.

The student body will have a chance this spring to show the faculty if there is real interest in a team. Track will be a regular part of the I.M. program, and if enough students compete and some talent is shown, the faculty Athletic Committee will review their decision.

The decision for dropping plans of a track program was made for this year, and could be reversed if enough talent and real interest, meaning participation, is shown.

"Tea and Sympathy" Rates Low In Eyes of Catholic Press

A student newspaper, published by a non-Catholic college located not far from Saint Joseph's, recently ran an ad publicizing the movie "Tea and Sympathy." Opposite the ad, a movie-review column commented: "I hope you're one (who sees the picture) because this one looks to be real fine movie entertainment."

"Tea and Sympathy" was a Broadway play that ran for 20 months to a packed house. It has just been released as a movie which is already being boomed as an Academy Award winner.

The story deals with a teenage boy and an "understanding" woman. The boy is a student at an Eastern prep school who has trouble fitting in with his classmates; he would rather read poetry and listen to classical music than play sports.

He is shunned by his classmates and is made miserable further by a rumor that brands him a homosexual. He is rescued from his plight by the "understanding" woman who, in the words of Time Magazine, "restores his soul by giving him her body."

The movie has been reviewed and commented upon by several Catholic publications. One of these, Sign Magazine, called it a "tepid and unappetizing case history" and a picture that is "far from satisfactory on moral grounds, and just doesn't qualify as suitable screen fare." This picture, is rated as objectionable in part by the Legion of Decency.

It's interesting to compare the two write-ups of the movie. We personally cannot offer any comment. We haven't seen the show, and don't intend to.

If Spirit is Lost, So Might Crown Be

Anticipation of an undisputed championship for St. Joseph's gridiron 11 is running high these days. And for no unjust reasons.

The expertly-coached Pumas have literally run through their ICC competition thus far while amassing 126 points to a total of 13 for their three opponents. This point spread also included a string of 14 consecutive scoreless quarters for our opposition.

Everything seems to be pointing towards a bright future for our erstwhile champs, but let's not jump the gun. We have two, and possibly three, tough games ahead of us which could shatter all thoughts of trophies, bowl bids, etc.

This week-end presents the biggest hurdle of all in Butler, a "black horse" that is matching us game for game. To date the Bulldogs have scored 94 points as opposed to 19 for their competition, while "breezing through" their first three conference tilts.

Should we ease up in our spirited fight for an instant Saturday against Butler, our gilded dream could remain just that. Our spirit to date has been outstanding and team support beyond all expectations, but without representation at Indianapolis, we could wind up as "also rans."

Glendale Scott Shows Record of Experience

by Ted Thomas

A man with a long list of noteworthy accomplishments and gratifying experiences is Mr. Glendale O. Scott, new instructor in Business and Accounting at St. Joseph's.

He has had broad experience in Education and Law, and has written several study guides and texts, which are being used at both Hunter and Brooklyn Colleges. But one of the most interesting phases of his life, according to Mr. Scott, was his army career.

Teaches Three "R's"

In 1943, he was assigned to a training company at Camp Shelby, Miss., where he taught fourth grade reading, writing, and arithmetic to army draftees.

The methods of training that Sgt. Scott was forced to use were so obsolete and inefficient that he rather heatedly told his commanding officer what he thought of the situation, hoping that this would anger the officer and cause the immediate transfer of the sergeant. But instead, the officer put his arm on Sgt. Scott's shoulder and said, "You're right! Now, get busy and straighten out this mess."

Serves 41 Months

With his Columbia University background the sergeant was able to reorganize the outfit so skillfully, that he merited a special citation from the post commander.

Later Sgt. Scott held the post of Battalion Coordinator of Training, where "I told captains and lieutenants what to do." After several months in the Finance Corps, he was discharged with 41 months' service in the U. S. Army.

As an American Legion officer in Tennessee, Glendale O. Scott worked with the state commander, who was a former student of his at Cumberland University, and is now the governor of Tennessee, Frank Clement.

Many Famous Friends

Another famous friend of Mr. Scott is Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma, who once gave him the opportunity to join the Kerr law office. Sen. Kerr was instrumental in procuring Mr. Scott's admittance to the U. S. Tax Court in 1948.

He is also acquainted with Sen. Gore of Tennessee, with Dr. Andrew H. Holt, past president of the National Education Association, and with the actor Spencer Tracy.

Glendale O. Scott

whom Mr. Scott met many years ago in Lima, Ohio.

In the education field, Mr. Scott's experience includes several years of teaching and administration, ending in the summer of 1956, at Darien County, Ind. He has also taught at the college level at Brooklyn, Hunter, and Hamilton Colleges in New York, and now at St. Joe, where he is specializing in Business and Accounting.

Represents UP at Rally

As a newsman in 1940, Mr. Scott had the privilege of representing the United Press at the Tennessee "Wilkie for President" rally—as an independent, of course. "This is the most memorable event in my life," says Mr. Scott.

Magazines and newspapers are a must for Mr. Scott. In his field, he tells us, periodicals are more timely than books, "and I've never been a reader of books—except when I went to school!"

But his most relaxing pastime is driving through the country with his wife Gerry and enjoying the scenery. Mrs. Scott, incidentally, is a collector of antiques in Lima, where she will remain until living quarters are obtained in Rensselaer. Until that time Mr. Scott intends to drive to Lima every weekend to see the family—and especially his three and one-half year old grandson, Douglas Glendale.

When we asked Mr. Scott what his favorite dish is, we fully expected to hear him say, "Southern fried chicken with candied yams." But he certainly set us back when he smiled and whispered, "Chow mein."

What Do You Think?

The date dance held last Saturday night gave us the makings of a most pleasurable column. We interviewed some of the girls who came down for the dance, and asked them what they thought of our fair campus.

Renee Sluba, Mundelien College, guest of George Borge—"I like most the Grotto, and the Stations of the Cross. I think they are very inspiring."

Lynne Loftus, Mercy H. S., Chicago, guest of Gene Tunney—"What impresses me most is the chapel and the Rec Hall, especially the ping pong facilities."

Lynn Anderson, Siena, Chicago, guest of Wayne Kassel—"They should let the girls visit the classes while in session."

Ann Williams, Maria H. S., Chicago, guest of Ed Rager—"I like Drexel Hall and Gaspar Hall, except that the fellas in Gaspar have the unusual habit of yelling out the windows at the guests of the students."

Sharon Kerrigan, Oak Park, guest of Pat Butler—"The campus is just beautiful, but why not add colored lights to the fountain at night?"

June Valentine, Chicago, guest of Dick Winans—"What I like most is Merlini Lounge and the juke box in the Rec Hall."

Kay Netterville—Chicago, Siena, guest of Bob Hoffswell—"The campus is very nice, but you should make it co-ed."

Ursula Giroachio, Rosary College, guest of Jim Lambke—"I think the college landscaping is beautiful and well-kept."

Barbara Ptaszek, Loyola U. guest of Guy O'Neil—"The college should allow the freshmen from Drexel Hall to drive to and from class."

Mary Rose Diehl, Loyola U. guest of Joe Lambke—"What impress me most is the peacefulness of the campus."

Veiare Sitnick, Hammond, Ind., guest of Neal Kelliher—"I like St. Joe's school spirit. It exemplifies the Catholic spirit I've seen at most Catholic colleges. Your cheerleaders—especially Willie—are terrific. The men on the whole seem to be gentlemen of which I'm sure the faculty and administration are proud."

Mary Ellen Madlener, Chicago, guest of Tom Ryan—"I enjoyed the football game very much. St. Joe has a team to be proud of. The band this year is wonderful."

Dear Editor . . .

Dear Editor:

We came across a statement on page two of this year's first issue of STUFF, and we feel that the idea it contains should be given more attention.

"The Health Center became so disgusted at having to patch up intramural players, that this year it will close at 3:30 in the afternoon to avoid the post-game rush."

This is a very clever innovation. After all, people shouldn't get hurt after 3:30 in the afternoon. They should get injured early and avoid the rush!!!!

INTRAMURAL SCOREBOARD

by Tom Uecker

Loyola Hall of Loyola University has invited St. Joseph's to participate in a basketball and bowling intramural tournament scheduled for sometime in February. DePaul, St. Norbert, St. Procopius, and Quincy have also been invited to the tourney. Loyola will provide sleeping facilities for the week-end. Awards and a social mixer have been planned.

With the 1956 intramural football season almost half over, only four teams remain unbeaten in both leagues. In the upperclassman league, the Gamokes of Noll sport a 4-0 record, while the 7-7's of East Seifert hold a 3-0 mark. In the freshman league two dorm teams still remain in the ranks of the unbeaten—the Knights and the Rustlers.

George Lux and Greg Jancich seem to be pacing the Gamokes with a good passing and running attack, while the sticky fingers of Jim Gagliano are keeping the 7-7's in contention. In the frosh league a balanced attack of both power and passing is the rule.

Three games have been won on first downs after the final score was tied. The playoffs are tentatively scheduled to be held starting Oct. 29, with the first six teams in the final standings in each league competing.

STANDINGS AS OF OCT. 10

Art Drea from East Seifert won the fall intramural tennis tourney by defeating Jim Murphy of Drexel 3-6, 6-1 and 6-3 in the final match. The doubles final is scheduled to be run off sometime in the near future. More entries are anticipated for the spring tourney.

Some fairly good scores were turned in on the first day of the golf tournament, indicating that St. Joe has some promising linksmen coming up.

Bowling will begin this year just as soon as the touch football season is over. Entries are now being accepted at the IM office for the bowling league.

Students are requested to bring all equipment checked out at the IM office back to the office IN PERSON ON THE SAME DAY IT IS CHECKED OUT, or else be charged for equipment. Your cooperation is needed.

Bob Hamman, fleet Puma Halfback, who was injured in the DePaul game and is out for the remainder of the season with a torn cartilage in his knee. Hamman was St. Joe's leading pass receiver at the end of three games. He had caught five passes for a total of 79 yards. Hamman holds a pair of noteworthy ICC all-time football records: best average-per-rush for a single game—24, against Indiana State, 1954 (144 yards in 6 tries); longest kickoff return—100 yards, against Butler, 1954.

Butler, Evansville Stand Next In St. Joe's Drive to Crown

Varsity Views

by Tom Donahue

At the pep rally the night preceding the Valpo game the whole student body did a terrific job in getting the team into the frame of mind they needed to go up to Valpo and play the brand of ball they did against the Crusaders. Valpo didn't know it, but by 9 p.m., Oct. 5, they had no more chance of beating us than did St. Mary of the Woods. It was a fine display of the type of school spirit we have here at St. Joe. (Valpo had 31 students at their pep rally before the St. Joe game.)

A few minutes before the start of the Valpo game Coach Em Bauer of the Crusaders remarked to our athletic director Fr. Shea that "it would either be a very close game or else Valpo would run away with it." But it was not a very close game. Therefore . . . Valpo took the worst beating ever handed her by a St. Joe eleven, 35-0. In fact, it was the worst beating ever handed a Bauer-coached team. And Mr. Bauer can look forward to meeting practically the same team next year. Pleasant dreams, coach.

Bob Hamman, one of the finest seat backs in St. Joe history is out for the remainder of the season due to the knee injury he received in the DePaul game. Coach Jauron had this to say about Hamman's injury: "Hamman's loss is a severe blow to our ball club. He was the number one player on this team and in my opinion he could make any college ball club in the United States." Fine words of praise for a fine halfback.

Not all gridiron victories are scored on the field. We won a big one on Oct. 3 when the schools of the I.C.C. voted 5-2 to allow St. Joe gridders Art Kurek and Ray Shuhet to participate in varsity competition this season. Both boys are from Hamilton, Canada, where they attended a five year high school. There is an I.C.C. ruling that any migrant athlete (one who transfers from a college or university to an ICC school) must be enrolled in the new school for one year before being allowed to participate in varsity competition. But we maintained that Kurek and Shuhet went as far as they could in the Canadian school and have as much right to come to St. Joe and play ball after one semester as does any high school senior from the States.

The point in question was put to a vote and St. Joe, Butler, Ball State, Evansville, and Indiana State voted to allow them to play, while DePaul and Valparaiso voted against the measure.

The ICC conference championship is still wide open and any of the seven schools can still take it. But it is becoming more and more apparent that our game with Butler in Indianapolis on Oct. 20 will be a big one for both schools. I hope you all realize this and are making plans to be there and back the Pumas all the way. Those 700 loud, cheering voices at Valpo meant a lot to the team and they will mean as much at Butler. The student council is going to obtain busses for the trip and a lot of students will drive. Don't let the team down at this stage of the game; you've done a great job so far.

We still may be able to obtain tickets for the basketball game at Notre Dame on Dec. 4. Because the fieldhouse at N.D. is not large enough to contain the whole N.D. student body, they usually do not send tickets to the opposing schools. However, Fr. Shea is in contact with the Irish athletic director and may be able to obtain a limited number of tickets.

Murphy Scores Three In 35-0 Route of Valpo

St. Joseph's offensive machine kept right on rolling as the Valparaiso Crusaders were humiliated on their home field, 35-0, Saturday, Oct. 6. The Pumas pounded out 377 total yards, mostly on the ground, to Valpo's inept 45.

Spearheading the St. Joe attack was fullback Mike Murphy, who scored three touchdowns and led Puma backs in rushing with 117 yards. His 31 rushes from scrimmage set a new conference record, surpassing the former record of 24 by Clayton Klein of St. Joseph's in 1954.

Set Rushing Record

The Pumas' 82 rushes from scrimmage, also a new conference record, were good for 346 yards on the ground. The Crusaders were able to execute only 37 plays. St. Joseph's rigid defense rendered itself unbreakable once again as Valpo was held to 52 yards rushing and a minus 7 through the air. Valparaiso's heralded quarterback Gordy Helms was held to only one completed forward-pass, and that for a 7-yard loss.

St. Joe scored in every period on drives of 64, 23, 93, and 63 yards; a 28-yard runback of a pass interception by halfback Norb Daigle; and a safety in the last few minutes of the game, the third safety for the Pumas in four games.

Murphy Scores Three

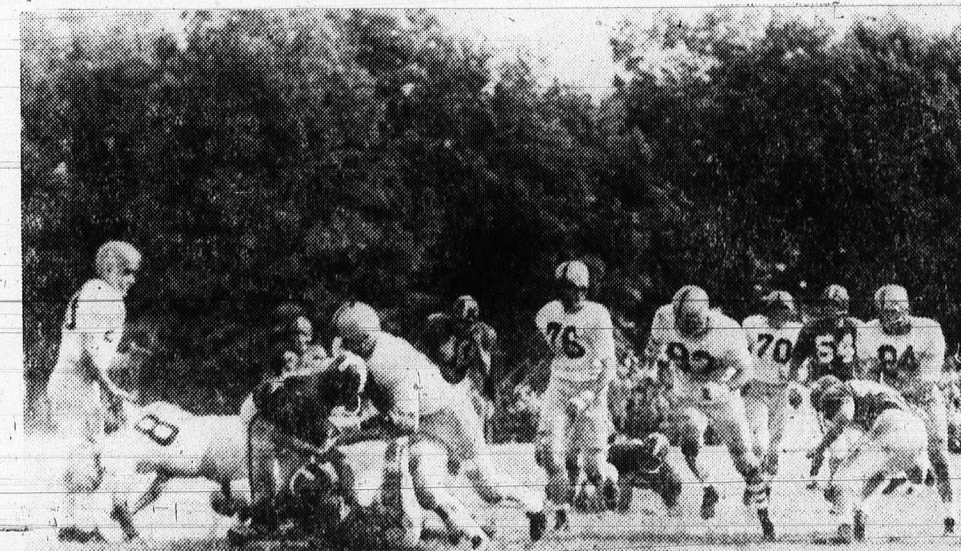

Murphy never lost a yard in his 31 carries as he scored on two one-yard plunges and a 5-yard jaunt.

The first Puma score came in 17 plays, capped by a two-yard pass from quarterback Ralph Tite to halfback Ray Banary. Banary also chalked up the game's longest run, a 43-yard sprint as the Pumas drove for their final score.

Valparaiso threatened only once, when they had first down and nine to go for a touchdown early in the second half. But they could not get past the four. The Crusaders got only as far as the Puma 45 in the first half.

St. Joseph's—	7	6	7	15—35

Norb Daigle is stopped after a short gain by a host of linemen in the Pumas 35-0 rout of the Crusaders of Valpo. St. Joe backs repeatedly ripped off long runs through holes in Valpo's defense. Superior coaching and conditioning seemed to be the deciding factor in the game's outcome. The defending co-champions simply outplayed the Crusaders at every turn.

The St. Joe football team goes into the two most important weeks of its 1956 campaign Oct. 20 when it travels to Indianapolis to meet Butler University.

The contest will pit the two top defenses of the conference against each other. The Bulldogs, in beating Indiana State 32-0 earlier this season, held State to a total of 1 yard rushing. Paul D. Hinkle, in his 17th year as head coach of Butler, was greeted by 14 lettermen, including 200-lb. guard Bob Eichholtz. Eichholtz is back from a two-year army hitch after making all-ICC guard in 1953.

The backfield will be led by fullback Leroy Thompson, provided his wobbly knee is healed. Last year the Pumas outscored Butler 28-13 before a Homecoming crowd.

St. Joe returns home the following Saturday, Oct. 27, to meet last year's ICC co-champions, the Purple Aces of Evansville.

The marked man in the Evansville lineup will be Ken Lutterbach, Little All-American choice, all-ICC, and leading ground gainer in the ICC in 1955. Included in the 21 letterman to report to head coach Paul Beck are 15 linemen, led by all-ICC guard Chuck House.

The Pumas will be out to avenge their only conference setback in 1955. The Aces whipped St. Joe at Evansville 26-13, a game in which Lutterbach scored all 4 TD's.

Pumas Break Scoring Record In 59-13 Win

St. Joseph's Pumas rocked the gridiron last Saturday night in pounding out the biggest score in Indiana Collegiate Conference history as they soundly demolished Indiana State, 59-13. The old conference record of 50 was formerly held by Valparaiso, who beat DePaul 50-26 in 1954.

Fullbacks Mike Murphy and Paul Scherschel led the potent attack with two touchdowns apiece. Murphy's 80 yards rushing and Scherschel's 63 were good for 1-2 in the Puma backfield. The Pumas totalled 265 yards on the ground to the Sycamores' 54.

Pass for 189 Yards

St. Joseph's passing attack was especially noteworthy. The combined efforts of Ralph Tite and John Stuber merited the Pumas 189 yards passing with nine completions out of 14 attempts. The Joemen pounded out a total of 454 yards to State's 87.

Murphy put the Pumas on top within the first three minutes of play by bolting through the center of the Sycamore line and romping 23 yards to score. Scherschel made it 12-0 midway in the second quarter by jaunting over from the St. Joseph's new debating team seems headed for a bright future if will to work means anything towards its success. Shown above are some of the members who will lead the club in its drive for recognition. They are (left to right): Glenn Murphy, Frank Unger, Ed Amond, and George Troha, who was elected president of the organization.

Troha Heads Debaters

Senior George Troha has been elected president of the college's newest campus organization, the Debating Society.

Ed Mohr was named vice-president, Ed Amond secretary, and Pat Opapa, treasurer. Glenn Murphy was appointed chaplain and elected to the post of librarian was Jim Gallo.

Aim of the society is to build a strong competitive debating team to compete with other colleges. Bids are already coming in from other schools inviting the team to tournaments.

Tryouts for positions on the team were held today. Each man gave a five minute talk which was judged by instructors.

The society hopes to form three teams with two men each on the affirmative and negative sides, plus an alternate for each team. At present the group consists of 18 members.

three-yard stripe. Keith Fingerhut added another TD shortly before the first half ended by going over from the four.

Score Four in Third Period

Indiana State mishaps were advantageously turned into Puma scores in the third quarter. Touchdowns were by: George Sherwood, nine-yard pass from Tite; Tite, one-yard plunge; Scherschel, eleven-yard jaunt; and Murphy, three-yard run.

The third quarter splurge was interrupted only by Sycamore John Barrett's 70-yard touchdown run-back on a kickoff. This score ended the Pumas' shutout streak at 14 consecutive quarters.

St. Joseph's reserves climaxed the romp by scoring twice in the final stanza. Hank Alesia realized a lineman's dream by intercepting a State pass and dashing 32 yards to paydirt. Stuber's TD pass to Bill Riegle closed the gleeful nine-touchdown slaughter.

Hagye Ties Record

Sycamore quarterback Jim Sutch made it 59-13 by plunging over from the one and adding the extra point with less than two minutes to go.

Dick Hagye's five conversions tied an ICC game record held by three other players.

The overwhelming score was St. Joseph's highest total in the school's history. A check of the records reveals the following scores: 1920—St. Joseph's 55, Pyramid A.C. 0; 1937—St. Joseph's 55, Oakland City 0.

floor of the gym. At a previous meeting of the Council, a request had been made for the Student Council to aid in financing the ventilation of the Recreation Hall.

Other reports presented to the Council were:

1. Treasurer Ray Goberville reported that a deficit of $1885.41 existed in the Council funds but noted that the Student Union fees had yet to be given to the Council.

2. Scholastic Committee chairman Flynn noted that the Dean might include a new course, CORPORATE FINANCE, into the college program for the coming semester if enough students desired it.

3. Ray Goberville of the Athletic Committee was granted approval of his committee appointments which were presented in his report.

4. Chairman Frank Unger of the Inter-Hall Committee also received approval of his committee appointments.

SC Postpones Frosh Voting

Contrary to previous years, freshmen elections will not be held until at least January. The announcement was made by Student Council president Tony Smith.

According to Smith, past elections held in the freshman class have been determined by the number of friends a candidate had. No consideration was given to an individual's merits, since the class members had little time to get acquainted.

Past elections had been held in October. This year's vote had been tentatively postponed until after the Nov. 3 grading period, before the new arrangement had been decided upon.

Requirements for each of the four offices will be the same as in previous years, according to freshman moderator Fr. A. Ruschau. A candidate must have an index of 2.0 at the mid-term grade report, must be in good standing with the Dean of Men, and must present a petition of 50 signatures to the Student Council.

Each student filling these requirements will then be given a two week period to acquaint his classmates with his platform and qualifications. After the campaign period, the actual election will be held in the Rec Hall or fieldhouse.

Plan Two 'Away' Mixers

Dance Committee co-chairman Tom Doherty has announced plans for two forthcoming mixers. At present no specific dates have been set for these affairs, but arrangements are expected to be completed within a few weeks.

Nov. 17 is the tentative date for the first of these dances. This mixer, which will be held at St. Mary of the Woods in Terre Haute, Ind., will be limited to 150 St. Joe men. Considering the facts that St. Mary's is more than 100 miles away, and that the affair won't end until rather late in the evening, accommodations are being sought to make it an overnight trip.

St. Xavier in Chicago has invited St. Joe men to visit their new campus some Friday evening after the Thanksgiving vacation. This proposed event is still in the planning stage, so no details are available.

As usual, freshmen and sophomores will use transportation provided by the Student Council, whereas juniors and seniors may use their own cars.
